

Hotel Santa Cruz is offering a Family Trekking on the weekend of May 21st, 2012

Cerro Chaman, Santa Cruz, Colchagua Valley. – The Hotel Santa Cruz will organise a family trekking to Cerro Chaman, located in the heart of Viña Santa Cruz (Santa Cruz Winery), from where you can have incredible vistas of the Colchagua Valley.

This will be a programme for adults and children, as well as beginners and experts. The Hotel Santa Cruz has gathered a team of experts to guide this ascent, which will take place on Sunday May 20th. Guests have the option to walk 3 km for beginners, 5 km for intermediates and 8 km for advanced trekkers.

This traverse includes the previous training, snacks, waters, first aids and all what is necessary to make of this a unique experience. There will be extra activities for those who do not want to go on the trekking, such as archery; a train ride around the vineyards, a ride on a gondola to visit the indigenous villages and bikes for those who want to discover the solitary fields of the Vineyard.

The programme includes lodging with buffet breakfast, a welcome glass of wine, use of the acclimatised pool and steam baths at the Inka Spa, the trekking and the additional activities, as well as entrance to the Museo de Colchagua.

For those checking in on Friday May 18th, with a programme of 04 days and 03 nights, the package costs USD 399 per person. For those opting for the 3-nights/2 -days programmes, the cost is of USD 361 per person. Two kids can sleep for free sharing the room with their parents.

Value per person in single room is USD 669 for 3 nights and USD 561 for 2 nights.
